

THE POTTER'S WHEEL

September 8, 2025

Dear _____,

Isaiah 64:8 reminds us, “O Lord, Thou art our Father; we are the clay, and Thou art our potter; and we all are the work of Thy hands.”

As the new school year begins, many fresh faces have arrived on the Mount of Blessings—each one a unique vessel, ready to be shaped by the hands of the Potter.

Some students come from families whose lives have been intricately woven into the story of God’s Bible School and College. Their parents or grandparents may have served in leadership roles, and their legacy continues through these new generations.

Others have journeyed from distant lands—Asia, Africa, Papua New Guinea, Japan—drawn by the influence GBSC has had on friends or family. They arrive with just a few suitcases and hearts full of hope, leaving behind everything familiar. During holidays and breaks, while U.S. students return home, these international students remain on campus, unable to travel due to financial and logistical barriers. Their commitment is singularly sacrificial.

Still others come with a different background. Though they have their own Christian heritage, they are new to the message of holiness that GBSC represents. Discovering the school online, they were drawn by its strong credentials and affordable, high-quality education. Though some standards may seem unfamiliar at first, they return after their first year with gratitude and conviction.

And then there are those who arrive not straight from high school, but from years of working, wandering, or wrestling with God. They bring with them grit, humility, and a renewed desire to dedicate their best years to Him.

Each of these students—whether legacy, international, curious, or seasoned—has one thing in common: they have placed themselves on the Potter’s Wheel.

They could have chosen other paths, but something within them longs to be shaped into His image. They listen for His voice in the chapel and the classroom. They open their hearts for His direction. They turn the pages of their minds so that His Word may be written upon them.

Join Us in the Work

These students are doing their part, AND we encourage you to join us.

Operating a school like GBSC is a sacred partnership—between students, faculty, alumni, and supporters like you.

Summers are historically tough and your generous donation helps us to find solid financial footing as we enter this new year. Together, let’s shape the future. Your gift of $1,000, $10,000, or $5 helps in every way.
